It is part of the east Baton Rouge school system. History Broadmoor High School was founded in 1960 and lives on a 30-acre campus centrally located in the historic Broadmoor Neighborhood[2] in south Baton Rouge. BHS offers a number of and accolades at the level, including several COURSES for THE ACT and College Dual Enrolment with BRCC for eligible upper classes in a good academic degree. The school traditionally serves mainly students in Broadmoor and Sherwood Forest subdivisions and within a five-mile radius of the school. The school originally served grades 7-11, with its first graduating class in 1962. Broadmoor High School is home to an annual well-attended and heavily published Broadmoor Arts Craft Festival held on campus every mid-November. At this event, people from all over the country come to sell and buy various arts and food. [3] There are several places facilitated by student organizations to raise funds for them. In general, this event is a significant source of revenue for the school. The most notable of the many student organizations on campus is John Lay chapter of the National Honor Organization, the National Beta Club, the Student Government Association (SGA), the Presidential Roundtable, Denim-N-Diamonds (Choir), broadmoor band of pride, Broadmoor Blade (School Newspaper), Buccaneer Log (Yearbook), FFA, and Broadmoor Young Life. All students are required to wear uniforms that include a plain white or Columbia blue polo-style shirt with a kady. In 2012, Broadmoor High School received the bronze award from US News & World Report magazine, ranking them among the best high schools in the country. [4] Broadmoor Athletic competes in the LHSAA 5A athletic class (the largest class of the state) and all home sports events are held on campus (field and fitness sports). Since 1969, Broadmoor's biggest rival has been the neighboring Trojan school trojans in Tara. Before Tara's inauguration, Broadmoor's larger rivals included Baton Rouge High School, Catholic High School and Istrouma. Since its inception, the school has a long tradition of producing quality student-athletes and holds a state title in football, golf, gymnastics, cross country and boys basketball. Broadmoor won his only state football title in 1966 as a 3A school, beating South Laforte High School, finishing the season 11-1-1 under head coach Jerry Epperson. Broadmoor also claimed two 4A state basketball titles, winning his first in 1985, defeating Monroe Carroll High School, 72-65. In 1987, the Buccaneers won their second title, beating New Orleans Carver High School, 72-56.
